ORDER

JESSE M. FURMAN, United States District Judge:

Today, the Court received a query by voicemail regarding the details of any potential bench trial. Unless and until the Court orders otherwise (after consulting with the parties), the Court contemplates a bench trial to occur in court, not remotely. Accordingly, any such trial would not be held until conditions allow for an in-person trial to be conducted safely.

If the parties feel that there is a need for a conference to clarify or discuss the proposed bench trial further, they should so advise the Court by letter-motion filed on ECF. The parties are reminded that requests for a conference (or any other substantive communications) should be made by letter on ECF — not by voicemail — in accordance with the Court's Individual Rules and Practices.

SO ORDERED.
